Dear Ato Sewiyew

I am sorry for you to write this long rubbish writing sleepless. Please I like you to get some sleep. As long as making comments on me on media- if you do not like EPRP- be my guest. It only makes worst on your cult institution, that is all. So please get sleep. I am sorry I cant entertain a lonely boredom cult here. I recommend you go see some help from psychologist. I remember I met a EPRP fellow in Khartoum when I was in my way to Athens Greece with a family member who is a Medical doctor- while chatting in a restaurant owned by Eritrean lady,; he told us he suffering from insomnia at times very frightening dreams and at times he got up from his sleep and opened the door and run away to outside. And the doctor asked him , how does it started and what were you doing in the past , what happened to you in the past.... the EPRP fellow (I remember if I recall his name right Engida or similar like that) , said- I was city death squad for EPRP and said murdered 4 people and one left wounded. So, he said, this nightmare keeps haunting him. I was terrifying when I heard such story. Do you know any of your friend or you have been participated in such who lives in the US here? if yes, please get help or give your time to help them instead of writing rubbish all night. Please, I can treat you in such , I cant help- just get help from somewhere else if you feel bored. Okay. Good you admit you are EPRP cult. a person who said he is mindless is obviously hard to change with time is dangerous. So sorry, I cant entertain you. chat with your cult members.

Good bye

Dear Ato Getachew Reda;

Well, well, well....., I must have struck the cord that made you dance all over the map. You remind me of a toy (clapping monkey) that kids used to wind it in the back and watch and giggle while the toy hops around the floor clapping and making the unwinding buzz sound until it stops (no batteries required). This is just for grins; I don't want you to spit fire in a rage of "I am insulted mantra..." sounding the funny sound of mal-functioning robot and fall apart on me now. What I am trying to say here is, to me with the conversations we had in this thread of e-mails and judging from many of your articles on your blog I am forming an opinion about you as a person who is programmed with all sorts of distorted and twisted information out there about a generation and EPRP hopping along with ignorance. I am sorry to say it, but the arrogance that you have exhibited so far, is limiting your learning capability. You see, the average person in the world, imagines robots to be more powerful than human brain, but in actuality, they always lack human intelligence. I am sorry to say it again, but you spit what you are programmed, without any intelligent analysis of complex human behavior and problem that is exhibited in politics, especially in Ethiopian political space.

All kidding aside (I believe it is nice to laugh at ourselves from time to time, I believe you should try it too for your health...), you don't have to yell and/or scream to be heard. I can hear you and see your true colors. Now that your hate for EPRP came out oozing with such a stench, you proved to me without a doubt who exactly you are. Putting your diatribe of justice coming for my kind, I wonder what you will answer if I said, who a hell do you think you are? You know, because you picked a phrase or two from an article here and there or a paper analysis out of context to serve you're a political hack purpose out of the blue, it does not make you an expert of that generation or EPRP or all your points to be true. You don't have any moral ground to judge that generation who have written thousands of thousands of pages of articles and analysis. That's why I advised you to get your facts straight and get your empirical analysis ducks in the row. In other words, who made you a judge, jury and executioner of that generation and/or EPRP?

What is this you're rambling of Kiflu Tadesse all about? Do you know Kiflu Tadesse left the struggle over 35 years ago with the likes of Bereket Simon and Addisu Legesse who have become one with Woyane? They were EPRP once, but not anymore. By the way, Kiflu Tadesse was in Addis longing to rub elbows with Meles and Co. when we were screaming to the world to find out what ever happened to EPRP leaders like Tsegaye Debteraw that he worked with when he was one of the leaders of the party (By the way the article your wrote about Tsegay Debteraw more than ten years ago is what made me respect you and still giving you the benefit of the doubt...).

Yeah, I know you have been working hard on your "Amhara project" for a while, and I have read your analysis from time to time that casts EPRP as anti-Amhara, anti-Ethiopia and what have you by jabbing Waleligne and/or thru direct or indirect insinuations, and now bringing Menilik and Neftegnas into your analysis repertoires. Let me tell you something bro, that generation is comprised of Amharas, Oromos, Tigrians, Eritreans, Gurages....etc..... They were more sophisticated at the time more than any of your likes give them credit. They were sons and daughters of the people from the North-Ethiopia, East-Ethiopia, West-Ethiopia and South-Ethiopia whose lands were taken away and made them Gebars (ጠሰኞች) by force (ነፍጥ). They were also progressive sons and daughters of the ruling class of the feudal system. They were from various professions of the time, like defense forces, students, labor unions etc....Yes, they were sons and daughters of Neftegnas (የነፍጠኞች ልጆች). We lived in the brutal feudal system, we saw what was going on and we stood with the people for a better Ethiopia. We never claimed God like perfect, but our heart was with the people, and we never made mistakes standing with the people. I can speak for myself, you called EPRP a cult in the previous thread of this e-mail, let me tell you bro, I will wear EPRP as a cult and a badge of honor for the rest of my life. I don't apologize for standing up with the people. While the likes of you are working hard tarnishing the sacrifices of that generation and EPRP even today, for standing up against the tyrants of yesteryears and today. Let me guess, your talk of judgement day was supposed to make me tremble in my boots, right? Not from a fellow who is shallow blogger on the internet.

You know what they say, "ignorance is a bliss"! As much as we can be proud of our kings' and queens' history as written by the winners of the time, don't forget there is huge untold history of the masses as well as a darker side of the feudal system's harsh treatment of the people all over Ethiopia. Not everything was perfect. That generation to bring about a democratic peoples' system attempted to diagnose the ills and suggested the way forward. I don't know why I am wasting my time with you, a person with a purpose as I understand you now. A person who acts like an agent provocateur hopping from one space to another, who started this e-mail exchange thread with a phony baloney charge of Assimba web site of distributing "his book" on the internet as pdf.

In summary, only people who like to saw divisions amongst the people so Woyane continue its rule go around as mad dogs biting everyone on their way at this historical time when a delicate dance of coalition building under one Ethiopian is needed. It is time to build pro-Ethiopia coalition forces to challenge Woyane and its likes. Ato Getachew, people like me and EPRP are standing up with the people of all Ethiopia. We have differences, yes without a doubt. First thing first! Let us stand up with the people of all Ethiopia. Let us focus on Woyane and the likes. Stop your baseless false accusation of that generation. Stop revising their struggle history. Now is not the time.

You want to make yourself useful? You can begin helping us in coalition building by working harder in your neck of the wood, bringing the Tigrrian elites into the fold whose silence is deafening. It is more than urgent today more than any time else as Woyane brazenly playing with tribal fire as being witnessed in the recent tribal tit for tat killings (Adigrat for example). The question is, which side are you on? I know I am whose side I am and willing to hold my nose to work with your likes for the sake of Ethiopian unity. Are you ready to do the same? Remember if the tribal card Woyane is playing goes out of control we will all lose.

Thank you,

AtoSewyew.....

P.S. This will be my last time engaging with you bro.

I do not if I have time to entertain looser and a rotten soul chatting here. You told me I have a phobia against EPRP. Not phobia, I charged it as criminal as possible as long as it did not respond. It has fooled so many people. You can deny all you want, you can dismiss the leader of the EPRP Kiflu Tadesse's testimony what its party was doing- at the end, and you can only fool yourself. That is all you can do as a cult.

You are right, your part is not dead at least in the drama in your mind, I agree. But, the good thing is its cults are not shooting at a human being like an animal hunt or doing the Boom any more. We understand that. It is hard for its cults to remove or learn themselves from myth they are in- that is due to the nature of cultic nature. It is communist cult, we know that. It is not allowed to be critique against the establishment of the cults. The only power you and your like have is to emit some gasses to stink the air. At least it will keep you running your rotten soul temporarily. That is all you can do. Your time is up brother! Just dream positive, dreaming is good.

Please, do not make laugh? I am not sure this era of our time can entertain to deal with a rotting premature communist cult that ruined its own country's people, culture, and society. You can fool yourself, no one else. The KGB and CIA agents already destroyed Ethiopia and its culture. It is now time to expose what is been hidden. The day of justice will come one day. Your party is one of them if not in the front. Let us go. Stay there at your dead website talking for yourself as usual. I have no time to entertain a rotten mind here.

Dear Ato Getachew,

There is a saying that goes like the following. “If you can’t stand the heat, get out of the kitchen”. You are an owner and publisher of political blog, and the least you expect is response or critic to what you are dishing out. Especially when it comes to your revisionist history and theory of Waleign to serve your point, which is way further out there from the truth. For your information, we still support and value your site thru the link that is still available on our site.

Brother, remember we are not all dead yet! You seem to be judgmental and opinionated about that generation’s struggle for all Ethiopians. As soon as you stretch the truth or sprinkle falsehoods don’t be surprised when someone calls you upon it. No one claimed that generation was perfect, but people like Waleigne never sold out on all Ethiopian people dreams, to live free. Yes, we at Assimba poke fun of analysis and baseless accusations that pop up from time to time from the likes of you thru articles, poems, cartoons and what have you. We don’t apologize for clarifying the distortions that goes on. It is the usual cry wolf story of our political space, that we go out and troll a generation and think we are the sole owners of truth. When a response comes back to what we dished out, take out the victim card of “I am insulted and dehumanized” and cry. Enough already! About Assimba’s cartoon that seem to upstate you so much, sorry for ruffling your feather your highness, we don’t call it an insult or dehumanization as you pointed out, may be polemics as known in politics. Our advice, to you and so called historians out there is do your homework and gather empirical evidence and analysis. Stop pushing the mumbo jumbo political hack jobs as facts about that generation.

I will not respond to your second half of your comments. It does not worth my time. It seems you have a phobia of EPRP that slips out in your writings as I observe from time to time. That’s all I can say. Again, please focus on Woyane and leave EPRP and Waleign alone!

P.S. Eritrean liberation and Oromo liberation movements precede the student movement or EPRP. At that time the student movement or EPRP were looking for solutions from national Ethiopian point and was well aware of these movements were narrow and dangerous. The majority of that generation were not affiliated with narrow nationalist movements, rather part of the national student movement. You can’t look at that generation’s history accurately through today’s tribal political lenses.

Thank you and good luck with you endeavors.
AtoSewyew.

Thanks for the clarification. I might also add that your response discomforted me when you said "

We will make a pass this time to your insults and hope you will investigate thoroughly before you indulge in name calling (if directed at Assimba)" I think your team (Assimba website editors) are not freeier from insulting either. You have done your best to dehumanized me us uneducated with a laughable cartoons and so on which only backfire on you and some individuals. You and the EPRP leaders gets so quickly feel sick and upset when someone disagrees with their hero Waleling Mekonnen. Because of it my relation with all of you got sourced and to the extent where we are now.

I will add one thing for your surprise. There is an ignorant Tigrayan fellow caling himself Taye (on his email) a guy claiming originally from Agame /Adigrat- bothers me always why I call the Tigre as Tigre or the Tigre Weyane refusing to accept there is such people. I tried to ask him back what do we Tigrayans call the Amhara? He response was 'AMHARU'. And I asked him back, what do they call themselves is it not "Amara/Amarawoch"? He has no answer. I asked him back and said- who gave the Tigrayans or you to call the Amhara as AMHARU if they call themselves the right way Amhara? He disappeared without clarifying anything. He tried to catch me as anti Tigray by calling the Tigre as Tigre. After few weeks disappearance , he came back and bothered me something about Tigrayans again. I just ignored him, since he lacks rational mind. He also insulted me for me to to say Assimba affiliated with EPRP. I am not going to argue with such silly argument, but, be it affiliated or not I have my reasons to link it to EPRP. To deny it or not is your right to do so. But, for Taye to come-up with all kind of insults only shows his degree of maturity. I can debate of you including the EPRPM leaders when it comes to Waleling's issue, but, for me to criticize Walelings's anti Amhara and his all fabricated lies about Amhara and his pro Eritrea and secession as Marxist theoretician makes you guys to insult me is beyond me. EPRP still never come up with its response why what Achamyehlel accused EPRP with its document which still makes me really puzzled by EPRP for not responding to a very big issue and claim. All I read was Achamyehlel was TPLF. That was some people's response to him. Anyways, good day my brother.

Thanks

Getachew Reda

Dear Ato Getachew,

If your insults are directed at Assimba.org , you are mistaken. Because you saw “Assimba” in what seems to be a link in your e-mail does not make the document is posted at Assimba web site. If this pdf file is posted @ Assimba the link (URI) would have started like “http://Assimba.org/by\_getachew\_reda\_editor\_ethiopian\_semay\_assimba.pdf “, but if you look closely to the link by right clicking on the link in your e-mail you will see the URI to be “http://dev.futurecom.com.br/by\_getachew\_reda\_editor\_ethiopian\_semay\_assimba.pdf”.

As I have mentioned earlier, please read the following article https://www.wired.com/story/evidence-that-ethiopia-is-spying-on-journalists-shows-commercial-spyware-is-out-of-control/?mbid=email\_onsiteshare , which we suspect is what is going on here. You click on the link your device or computer will be tagged by this spyware that sends your activity back to the mother ship (Woyane spies). That’s why it is always advised not to click on a link or open attachment that you are not sure of the sender or the link is questionable.

We will make a pass this time to your insults and hope you will investigate thoroughly before you indulge in name calling (if directed at Assimba), thank you.

Thanks,

My dear brother, I will stop bothering you. Sorry for that. I thought this elements were good people, now I know how to call these idiots. It is good lesson to learn from me to avoid contact with these thieves if you had by any chance in an honest way in the past (though it is not my place to suggest ) They are nothing but annoying bugs in our present politics. For any one at this civilized century to plagiarize someones book without permission is indeed dispelled. Wow!!!! these people go that far is scary. God give us mercy, these are worst elements in the Diaspora. I make sure I add them in my next book for history to record who these scumbags are. My apology to connect these thieves and scumbags you as your followers. My apology.

Thanks for your response

Ato Getachew, I think you know Assimba as good as me and you should address your query to them and not to me. The insinuation that Assimba or any other citizen with his or her own conviction is my follower is not only wrong but insulting to them and to me and I think I have told you in the past not to resort to such errors. I have little or no time to spend on such trivialities and I ask you to stop bothering me while we should concentrate on struggling against the Weyane and a myriad of extremists.

Dear Ato Iyasu;

Can you tell me why your followers are getting into this dirty game? Is this really politics or a crime? Can you tell me who Assimba is?
